Scripture: II Corinthians 12:7-10

⁷To keep me from becoming conceited because of these surpassingly great revelations, there was given me a thorn in my flesh, a messenger of Satan, to torment me. ⁸Three times I pleaded with the Lord to take it away from me. ⁹But he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." Therefore I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ's power may rest on me. ¹⁰That is why for Christ's sake, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

O Lord, God who rules the universe from everlasting to everlasting:
Speak to our hearts when courage fails, and people faint for fear, and the love of many grows cold, and there is distress of the nations.
Strengthen us, and keep us resolute and steadfast in the things that cannot be shaken, abounding in hope and knowing that our labor is not in vain. Restore our faith in the power of good; renew the love that never fails, and help us to lift up our eyes and behold, beyond the things which are seen and temporal, the things which are unseen and eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Words and Music by David Ruis

I will worship with all of my heart.
I will praise You with all of my strength.
I will seek You all of my days.
I will follow all of Your ways.

I will give You all my worship.
I will give You all my praise.
You alone I long to worship.
You alone are worthy of my praise.

I will bow down, hail You as King.
I will serve You, give You everything.
I will lift up my eyes to Your throne.
I will trust You, trust in You alone.

I will give You all my worship.
I will give You all my praise.
You alone I long to worship.
You alone are worthy of my praise.

I will give You all my worship.
I will give You all my praise.
You alone I long to worship.
You alone are worthy of my praise.
